

GOOD, BECAUSE WE'D LOVE TO TAKE OUR RELATIONSHIP A LOT FURTHER.

The world's leading global express delivery and logistics company brings you world-class international service.

As a DHL customer in the U.S., you have firsthand knowledge of our superior level of service. But you may not know that the same high standard you've grown accustomed to when sending packages cross country, is also available crossing the globe. In fact, nobody has more experience shipping to more overseas destinations than we do—225 countries and territories. In addition, we've enhanced our service along the transatlantic route and now provide you with next day delivery from many European markets.

When a delivery is important to you, it's important to us. And with over 130,000 dedicated Express employees worldwide, we're with your shipment every step of the way. There are never any middlemen or third-party agents to deal with. Plus, we have our own in-house licensed customs brokers in more than 170 countries who understand the local regulations enabling shipments to speed through quickly.

With innovations like ours, it's no wonder we've become the world's leading global express delivery and logistics company. Here are just a few examples:

CHINA DHL's four international hubs (Beijing, Guangzhou, Shanghai and Shenzhen) link to 12 major cities in China and 318 in all. And in Hong Kong, we have the largest Express hub in Asia, along with daily direct service to the U.S.

JAPAN We've invested $182 million in 43 countrywide service centers, including our state-of-the-art Nagoya gateway. We also offer the fastest transit time from Tokyo to many major world destinations.

UNITED KINGDOM Two dedicated flights daily from the UK to the U.S. provide next day delivery to over 31,000 U.S. ZIP Codes covering 96% of U.S. businesses. In addition, DHL offers next day delivery of non-dutiable shipments from Manhattan to over 40 key business postcodes in London.

GERMANY A recent 300 million euro investment in our Leipzig hub will make it the nation's nerve center for the DHL European air express network—providing you enhanced reliability and transit times.

TAIWAN DHL has eight service centers here as well as direct customs clearance in our gateway facility to better serve you.

SOUTH KOREA Here, an extensive local network of service centers and operations capabilities enables us to provide you with the latest pickup and cut-off times for added convenience.

Wherever you import from or export to, we make international shipping effortless from start to finish. With our broad range of coverage and unparalleled global capabilities, you can ship worry free virtually anywhere. And now you can stay connected everywhere with a FREE DHL Wi-Fi Finder.
